UNITED STATES' RESPONSE TO MOTION OF IMRAN ALRAI TO INTERVENE FOR THE LIMITED PURPOSE OF UNSEALING COURT DOCUMENTS

The United States responds to Imran Alrai’s Motion to Intervene (ECF #149) (the “Motion”) as follows:

Alrai’s Motion seeks to unseal various filings and transcripts that the Court has ordered sealed in the case United States v. Craigie. Contrary to his assertion, Alrai does not have a “special interest” in unsealing these documents, since the Court has already fashioned the appropriate remedy to allow Alrai to litigate his own case. Furthermore, the Court has already properly balanced the interests of the public, the parties, and third parties in this case in issuing its Orders redacting certain documents and sealing others.

Accordingly, Alrai's motion should be denied. In the alternative, if the Court orders the unsealing of documents currently under seal, the government requests that such documents be redacted in ways consistent with its supplemental sealed filing.
